
PORT CHARLOTTE CHRISTIAN SCHOOL

Probation Agreement

Upon admittance to Port Charlotte Christian School students will be placed on nine weeks probation.

If the student's adjustment to the school is satisfactory, they will be taken off probation. If, however, a student has not adjusted well or there have been any problems students may, at the end of the nine weeks, be asked to withdraw from Port Charlotte Christian School.

Any time that a student's behavior or attitude is not in accord with school policies or principles, the student will be placed back on probation and both parents will be called in for a conference. If the administration feels the situation has not changed within two weeks, parents will be asked to withdraw the student.

NOTE: The school reserves the right, at any time, to ask a student to withdraw.
